The numbers used for these text messages are temporary and are randomly generated and replies will not reach the school if send more than 24 hours after the original message. Absences can be explained by phone, Daymap message or written